

City of Miami Beach Tourism and Culture Department

MARJORY STONEMAN DOUGLAS
OCEAN BEACH PARK

Art in Public Places

Historical Preservation Board- Marjory Stoneman Douglas Proposal

AiPP Approved Proposed Artwork for Marjory Stoneman Douglas Park

- On March 5, 2024, the Miami Beach Commission for Women made a motion at their meeting to honor Marjory Stoneman Douglas for her contributions to South Florida with a mural at her namesake park.
- On May 30, 2025, the Art in Public Places (AiPP) Committee approved Christina Pettersson's proposal to create a concrete vinyl mural honoring Marjory Stoneman Douglas at her namesake park, as communicated via LTC# 217-2025.

The Forgotten Frontier / Archive|printed Korographics Vinyl Wallpaper from original drawings / Miami Dade Art in Public Places Commission/ Caribbean Village/Affordable Housing for the Elderly/ Community Room/ 2020

*The Garden of Evil/ Pastel and colored pencil on wood panels/ No Vacancy
Miami Beach / Installed at the historic Cadillac Hotel and Beach Club/ 2023*

Proposed Marjory Stoneman
Douglas
Park Location

3'5"

1'8"

6'11"

16'7"

11"

